A behind the scenes presentation of the unique challenges in the design, construction and deliverance of cultural institutions. A candid review of the design planning process by renowned architects Jack Diamond (DSAI), and Bruce Kuwabara (KPMB).

These two architectural firms have been responsible for the planning and development or redevelopment of many of Toronto's significant cultural facilities including The Four Seasons Opera House, The Royal Conservatory, the Gardiner Museum and the National Ballet School. KPMB have recently been selected to renovate the Minnesota Orchestra Hall and DSAI have been chosen to design the new Mariinsky Theatre in St. Petersburg, Russia.
