JOIN THE WORLD OF RICS

Who we are – RICS is the leading organization in the world for professionals in property, land, real estate, construction and related environmental issues.

Our members offer the very best advice on a diverse range of land, property, construction and related environmental issues. As part of our role, we help to set, maintain and regulate standards. We also provide impartial advice to governments and policy-makers. RICS operates out of 146 countries, supported by an extensive network of regional offices located in every continent around the world.

A global passport to the world of land, property and construction

The RICS standard is seen as the benchmark for the property profession around the world and, as such, ensures that our members' advice is held in the highest regard.

Our internationally recognized qualification provides competitive advantage for individuals, either working in the property, real estate or construction sector, or for students considering making this their career.

Raising standards in the world of surveying – globally

RICS (Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors) is the leading organization of its kind in the world for professionals in property, land, construction and related environmental issues. As part of our role we help set, maintain and regulate standards – as well as provide impartial advice to governments and policymakers. RICS members operate in 146 countries, supported by an extensive network of regional offices located in every continent around the world.

To ensure that our members are able to provide the quality of advice and level of integrity required by the market, RICS qualifications are only awarded to individuals who meet the most rigorous requirements for both education and experience and who are prepared to maintain high standards in the public interest. With this in mind, it's not surprising that the letters RICS represent the mark of property professionalism worldwide.
